9 Insurance

9.1 The parties shall effect and maintain with reputable insurers such policy or policies of insurance as may be necessary to cover the parties' obligations and liabilities under this Agreement. Neither party shall be obliged to obtain insurance cover in relation to risks arising from terrorism or military action and neither party shall be liable to the other for any loss of any kind arising from terrorism or military action.

10 Confidentiality

10.1 Subject to Clause 10.4, the parties acknowledge a duty of confidentiality to each other not to disclose confidential information or commercially sensitive information.

10.2 The terms "Information" and "Request for Information" shall have the same meaning as defined in section 84 of the Freedom of Information Act 2000.

10.3 The Council is subject to the requirements of the Code of Practice on Access to Information and Freedom of Information Act 2000 (and any equivalent legislation, subordinate legislation, codes of practice and guidance notes issued in respect of the Freedom of Information Act 2000) ('FOIA').

10.4 In the event that the Council receives a Request for Information in respect of any part of the Information, the Council reserves the sole right to decide whether to disclose information when responding to a Request for Information.

10.5 For the avoidance of doubt, the restrictions in this Clause 10 shall not prevent the disclosure or use of Information in the proper performance of the Council's duties, the disclosure of Information if required by law and the disclosure of Information which has come into the public domain otherwise than through unauthorised disclosure.

10.6 The Client acknowledges that nothing in this Agreement shall affect the Council's right to use as it sees fit any general marketing or advertising intelligence gained by the Council in the course of its appointment.

11 Warranties and Indemnities

11.1 If there is an error in the Advertising as published or publication is delayed or does not occur as planned, the Council shall not be liable unless this is caused by its default or neglect.

11.2 Should either party or its employees sustain any loss or liability, costs (including legal costs) or damages as a result of the other's breach of the Agreement, the party in breach shall indemnify the other subject to the provisions of Clause 12.

11.3 The Client warrants that to the best of its knowledge and belief, all the Account information supplied to the Council before and during the term will be accurate, owned by the Client and not in any way contrary to English law.

11.4 The Client warrants that the publication of the Advertising shall, to the best of the Client's knowledge and belief, not infringe any third party rights or be in any other way contrary to law.

11.5 The Client agrees to indemnify and keep the Council indemnified against any or all costs, demands, expenses, losses or damages incurred by the Council arising from or out of any cancellation, delay, alteration or disruption to the production of the Advertising which results from any act or threatened act of terrorism.

11.6 The Client accepts full legal responsibility in respect of any Advertising approved by it for publication and will indemnify the Council in respect of any loss or liability, costs (including legal costs) or damages incurred as a result of any use of the Advertising by the Client for advertising purposes.

12 Limitation of Liability

12.1 Nothing in this Agreement shall exclude or limit the Council's liability for fraud, or for death or personal injury caused by its negligence, or any other liability to the extent such liability may not be excluded or limited as a matter of law. Subject to this but including any liability arising under any indemnity under this Agreement:

12.2.1 the Council's maximum aggregate liability under or in connection with this Agreement, whether in contract or tort (including negligence) or otherwise, will in no circumstances exceed the total remuneration payable to the Council hereunder during the preceding 12 months; and

12.2.2 the Council will not be liable under this Agreement for any loss of actual or anticipated income or profits, loss of contracts or for any special, indirect or consequential loss or damage of any kind howsoever arising and whether caused by tort (including negligence), breach of contract or otherwise, whether or not such loss or damage is foreseeable, foreseen or known.

12.2 This Agreement states the full extent of the Council's obligations and liabilities in respect of the Advertising and the performance of the services. The parties agree that any condition, warranty representation or other term concerning the Advertising and / or the performance of the services which might otherwise be implied into or incorporated in this Agreement, whether by statute, common law or otherwise, is excluded to the maximum extent permitted by law.

13 Termination

13.1 The Council reserves the right to terminate this Agreement for any reason whatsoever at short notice. In the event that the Council terminates this Agreement, the Council shall refund the Client outstanding monies held and received by the Council for advertising not yet received by the Client.

13.2 Either party may terminate this Agreement forthwith by notice in writing to the other if the other party is;

13.2.1 in material breach of any of the terms of this Agreement and, in the case of a breach capable of remedy, fails to remedy such breach within 30 days of receipt of a written notice giving full particulars of the breach and of the steps required to remedy it; or

13.2.2 (being a company) passes a resolution for winding up or a court makes an order to that effect; or
