Portsmouth City Council - Housing, Neighbourhood and Building Housing Options

Portsmouth City Council is a registered Data Controller (Registration Number Z5578313). Portsmouth City Council aims to meet the highest standards when collecting and using personal information in accordance with data protection law. This privacy notice tells you about how Portsmouth City Council collects and uses personal information.

What information do we collect?

Portsmouth City Council collects the names, addresses, dates of birth and contact information in the form of telephone numbers and email addresses from you as a customer or tenants. We may also collect other personal information about your family, your mental and physical health, financial circumstances and housing and social care needs when relevant. We keep copies of letters and records of telephone calls along with information we receive about you from other people, for example your doctor. We also keep details of your next of kin, people you wish us to contact and details of any payments made in connection with your tenancy.

Why do we collect your information?

Portsmouth City Council uses personal information to:

- Assess your housing application and ensure that you meet Portsmouth's housing allocation policy.
- Maintain and manage our housing waiting list.
- Offer support and advice.
- Ensure that your needs are met and understood.
- Manage licences.
- Assist in Service development.
- Allow us to confirm your identity when talking to you about your housing application.
- Provide emergency accommodation when needed.

How we use your information?

Portsmouth City Council uses personal information to:

- Ensure that we can contact you when we need to. This means that we can discuss your housing application and resolve any queries that we may have.
- To investigate your housing situation and contact related parties to clarify information
- Contact you in the case of a suitable property becoming available.
- Help you to access services relating to Property and Housing and seek suitable accommodation.
- Assess any need that you may have for additional housing support and make referrals for this support where appropriate.
- Ensure that you are able to meet your conditions as a tenant including payment of rent.

How do we keep personal information secure?

Portsmouth City Council ensures that your personal data is kept secure through the use of technical security measures for all our IT systems. We ensure that only employees who should have access to personal data can do so and this is managed through comprehensive training, regular checks and validation. Anyone that processes personal data on our behalf, such as repairs contractors, are governed by specific contracts to ensure that they do so securely and only for the purposes set out by Portsmouth City Council.

How long do we keep hold of personal information?

Records will not be kept for longer than necessary. Full information regarding retention periods for the different types of data can be found on our website www.portsmouthcc.gov.uk

Access to personal information

You have the right to know if Portsmouth City Council holds any personal information relating to you. You can do this by making a 'Subject Access Request' using the information in the 'How to contact us' section or by going to <https://www.portsmouth.gov.uk/ext/the-council/freedom-of-information>

You will usually be entitled to see all of the data held about you but may not be entitled to see confidential information about other people.

Access to CCTV images

CCTV images that are stored and catalogued may be accessed by individuals by following the procedure above to make a 'Subject Access Request'. Portsmouth City Council may not record CCTV at all locations with CCTV signage and not all CCTV cameras will be operational at all hours of the week. Individuals may not be able to see visual images that contain other identifiable individuals or are considered confidential under law e.g. if they are required for the prevention or identification of a crime.

Sharing or disclosing personal information

There may be times when we need to share your information with other people. We will only do this if you have either given your explicit consent or where the law allows or requires us to. This could be in an emergency where there is a safeguarding concern or life threatening situation or for the purposes of preventing or detecting crime or fraud or apprehending and prosecuting offenders where we have a statutory duty to do so.

We will only share appropriate information about you with your family or carers and usually only where you have given specific permission to do so. We may withhold information where it places any individual at risk

We will share personal data with other organisations such as Social Care, other housing providers, landlords, Police, GP's to assess your housing application. This information will be used to assess your housing need and will impact any offer of a property that is made.

We will only share with each person or organisation the details they need in order to provide their services or support to you or perform their statutory duty.

Complaints or queries

If you have a complaint or query about how we collect and use personal information, if you would like a change to be made to your record or want to object to processing of your information, please contact us using the information in the 'How to contact us' section below.
